A casual game indeed. Suitable to be played when you are bored and find nothing to kill the time.

Patience & sharp eyes are basic to get through the game; what's more vital, you need a mouse pad that's huuuuuuuuuge enough!!! (you will figure out what I mean when you process further in the game) tips: "get hit", as the Achievements state, means your Borealis touches the tip of the, how should I call, Strings? Crossing the body or touching the tail of the "strings" is allowed.

Have fun being bored!. Drink alcohol or die - a genius ironic sandbox about zombies and drunkenness.. This would be a good tool for table-top rpgs or miniature style games. However, it's trash. There is no community support, so you can't share what you do. Multiplayer options are tedious and require some amount of tech knowledge. Having owned this for quite a while, I've yet to see any substantive changes in updates, and devs have moved on to other projects. DON'T WASTE YOUR $$. 4 is still my favorite but this game might be better over time

Pro Gamer Manager 2 is a pretty fun e-sports management simulation game and a great successor to Pro Gamer Manager. I had a lot of fun playing it, and I plan on playing more. It is in Early Access, so I expect bugs, but other than that, I feel like the core of the gameplay is well done. This game has a lot of potential and I can't wait to see what it becomes once it leaves Early Access!. Good game, but get ready to die... a lot. Tips: Using the "L" key you can light the torches on the wall and your candle, the zombie seems to get a little slower in the light... but nothing confirmed. Good Luck.. Highly detailed, well fleshed-out cars, each with unique handling characteristics. Excellent laser-scanned track. Great pricetag. Another solid addition to the venerable AC. A great game, where you take the role as either captain of a ship, commander of a fleet, or a pilot of many aircraft

I first got this game as a filler game from a make your own bundle, from first glance with the images i thought this game was some kind of tower defence and didnt hold much hope (im just not a fan of tower defence games)

I finally decided to give the game a try and boy was a suprised. The story while simple was amusing gave me a smile at least. the graphics where simple and appealing to look at and the game play was fun.

Simply but this game is a sort of resource managment, collect food, wood and stone to progress through the map to accomplish objectives to make it to the next level. Very simple concept easy to learn and easy to get to grips with to the point of it being very easy to adapt to when a new addition is included (i.e. tools and money) and abbilities (build faster, move faster) the biggest gripe is have about this game is that the levels can be long which in it self isnt a problem especially early on, but when you get later in to the game you have to think more about how to go about things or else you will trap your self with no food, or wood or stone to continue. and thats when it becomes a problem as you have to restart and redo the past 20mins.

overall this game is cheap and worth the money. its a great game to sit down and play for a couple hours or just to play 1 level if you're waiting for something else. A classic style arcade shooter. So I just randomly downloaded this game and wasn't expecting much but, honestly is was amazing. I'm not a fan of horror games (I'm kinda a baby when it comes to anything scary) but I absolutely adore this one, I love the story and how meta all of it is. One thing though, it was...an experience...very trippy.. It was really good and nice wallpaper. Pretty boring honestly I expected much better giving the generation this game is from.

I was an hour in the game and was still basically a tutorial the game is only 8 hours long so yea...

I refunded it really didn't seem like it was going to get better
